

College Readiness: How Gap Years Can Build Essential Skills for Success

DATE: April 8, 2019

TIME: 7:00-8:30 pm

LOCATION: Wellesley Free Library
530 Washington St, Wellesley, MA
02482

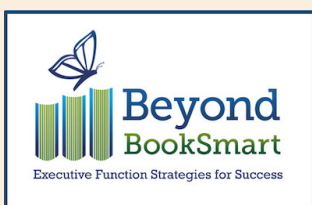

RSVP here to reserve your space

College Readiness: How Gap Years Can Build Essential Skills for Success

Gap Years have become more popular than ever - yet the variety of options available can feel overwhelming to students and parents. In this panel discussion, three education experts describe the Gap Year discovery process, dispel common myths and worries about taking Gap Years, and provide guidance on the types of experiences that help students gain skills, confidence, and clarity to prime them for a successful transition to college.

Bring your questions about college readiness and Gap Year planning to this event!

Co-sponsored by Gap Year Solutions and Beyond BookSmart.

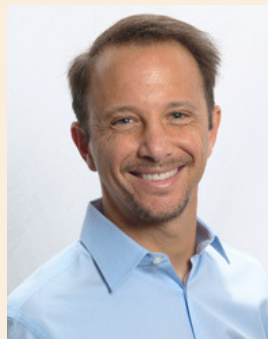

FREE PARENT PRESENTATION

A PANEL DISCUSSION WITH 3 EXPERTS IN GAP YEAR PLANNING, EXECUTIVE FUNCTION SKILLS, & HIGH SCHOOL GUIDANCE COUNSELING

ABOUT THE PANEL

Katherine Stievater founded Gap Year Solutions to help students successfully transition to college. She serves on the Board of Advisors of the Gap Year Association, and is a Professional member of the IECA and keynote speaker for USA Gap Year Fairs.

Massachusetts Distinguished Educator Michael Delman is a pioneer and leader in the area of Executive Function coaching. He has served as CEO and founder of Beyond BookSmart since 2006. He has been featured in the The Times of London, CBS Boston affiliate WBZ TV, and dozens of media outlets across the country.

Mary Jane Walker has been a guidance counselor at Needham High School for over a decade. Prior to that, Mary Jane worked for almost 20 years in both undergraduate and graduate admissions at a variety of universities, including Boston University, UMass Boston and Suffolk University.